

DATUM

July 10, 2026

NINAMEDIA CLIPPING

DAILY REPORT

POLITICAL REVIEW

ninamedia

DAILY REPORT

POLITICAL REVIEW

RTS1

Eight countries block us on EU path

Minister of Interior Ivica Dačić and his Bulgarian counterpart Ivan Demerdzjiev signed at the joint border crossing Gradina-Kalotina the memorandum of on the establishment of the joint border crossing Gradina 2-Kalotina 2. In the past 6 months, and before the summer season, 3 million people crossed this border. "We want to make the crossing of people and goods even easier, but also to prevent cross-border crime," said Dačić.

RTS1

Parliament discusses bills

The members of the Parliament finished the debate on amendments to several proposed laws from 18 items on the agenda, among which is the Law on Weapons and Ammunition, as well as on parent-caregiver, and amendments to the Criminal Code. In total, more than 300 amendments were submitted, and after the discussion, the Parliament will vote on all items on the agenda.

RTS1

Oil prices rise

Due to the sharp rise in the prices of crude oil and fuel due to geopolitical conflicts, the Ministry of Finance further reduces excise taxes in order to mitigate the increase in fuel prices at the pumps and protect the standard of citizens. The Association of Oil Companies of Serbia and experts warn that the crises are continuing, and that despite the forecasts about the normalization of supply next year, geopolitical instability continues to dictate high prices and make business difficult.

Politika

Vučić: Very good conversation with Botsan-Kharchenko

Serbian President Aleksandar Vučić held a conversation with Russian Ambassador Alexander Botsan-Kharchenko on bilateral cooperation between the two countries, with special emphasis on the economy, as well as on regional and global issues. Vučić pointed out that Serbia and Russia will jointly protect the achievements of the great victory from the Second World War and oppose attempts to revise historical facts. The conversation was assessed as very good and pointed to the importance of further strengthening of relations between Serbia and the Russian Federation.

RTS1

Ministry of Defence and SPC sign agreement

The Ministry of Defense and the Serbian Orthodox Church (SPC) signed an agreement on the exchange of real estate, which foresees the exchange of land in the cadastral municipality of Beočin, owned by the Eparchy of Srem, for real estate in the cadastral municipality of Valjevo, part of the military complex Tjenovac 2. The contract was signed by Minister of Defence Bratislav Gašić, Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Water Management Dragan Glamočić, Director of the Republic Directorate for Property Jovan Vorkapić, and the representative of Metropolitan Vasilije of Srem, Deacon Aleksandar Stamenković.

Blic

Mali: Stimulus payment for adult citizens a realistic option

Siniša Mali confirmed that stimulus payment to all citizens of Serbian age is a realistic option due to the responsible economic policy and stability of the state, with more than EUR 5 billion in the account and high public investments that exceed 7% of GDP. He dismissed claims that the stimulus will be financed by new debt, pointing out that the Serbian economy is one of the five fastest growing in Europe. President of Serbia Aleksandar Vučić announced the stimulus payment in September, without specifying the amount, with a hint that the citizens would be satisfied.

DAILY REPORT POLITICAL REVIEW