Macut: IMF projections confirm stability of economy

Prime Minister Đuro Macut said that the projections of the International Monetary Fund, which foresee Serbia among the five fastest growing economies in Europe by 2031, confirm the stability of the economy and its ability to adapt to challenges. He said that the Expo, with the participation of more than 140 countries, will be an important incentive for economic development, as well as that the accompanying mini-Expo will promote different regions of Serbia.

Chinese customs experts visit Serbian exporters

Chinese customs experts visited several production facilities in Serbia, including wineries, distilleries and food processing plants, to assess food safety and production control systems for export to the Chinese market. During the official inspection visit, they learned about production processes, the application of good production and hygiene practices, as well as the fulfilment of HACCP standards and product traceability. Minister of Agriculture Dragan Glamočić pointed out that the opening of the Chinese market is a priority and provides new opportunities for Serbian exporters.

Diesel excise duty rebate

The Ministry of Agriculture announced that the amount of the excise duty rebate for diesel fuel for registered farms is determined exclusively in accordance with the prescribed amount of excise duty. It happened that there was a reduction in the amount of excise duty, so the amount returned to farmers was reduced accordingly. Thus, at one point, the refund amounted to RSD 39.12 per litre, but as the excise duty returns to the regular level, the amount of the refund also increases.
