Vučić and Mali tour Expo construction site in Surčin

Serbian President Aleksandar Vučić and Finance Minister Siniša Mali toured the Expo construction site in Surčin despite bad weather conditions. The Expo, theme of which is "Play for Humanity: Sport and Music for All", will be held in Belgrade from May 15 to August 15 of the following year. Vučić emphasized the importance of the project, stressing that the contractors are trying to finish the project by December 1 and expressed his satisfaction with the quality of the construction of the hotel, apartments and stadium.

Law on parent-caregiver

The Parent-Caregiver Law goes into effect on October 1. As early as next week, changes to the rulebook introducing a new service of an inclusive companion, intended for people with disabilities after finishing school, will be adopted, relevant minister Milica Đurđević Stamenkovski said. Parents of children who receive an increased allowance for someone else's care and assistance will have the right to achieve the status of caregiver, which brings them a monthly allowance in the amount of RSD 65,000, with the payment of contributions. The allowance will increase every March 1.

Inconsistency does not help Serbia or EU

Slovenian MEP Irena Joveva points out that there is an inconsistency between the European Commission and the European Parliament in their approach to Serbia, which creates confusion and undermines citizens' confidence in the European project. The European Parliament adopted a harsher resolution on the situation in Serbia, while the EU Enlargement Commissioner calls for the opening of clusters and cooperation.
