

DATUM

July 24, 2026

NINAMEDIA CLIPPING

DAILY REPORT

POLITICAL REVIEW

ninamedia

DAILY REPORT POLITICAL REVIEW

Politika

US Embassy: Ensure Serb Representation in Kosovo Institutions

The Embassy of the United States in Pristina called on Kosovo's provisional institutions to ensure full representation of Serbs in political and civic life and in institutions, emphasizing that the Constitution and laws guarantee their rights. The decision to dismiss seven Serbian prosecutors prompted reactions from the EU and the German Embassy, which expressed concern and called for restraint from actions that could jeopardize the reintegration of Serbian judicial personnel.

RTS1

Meeting of Foreign Ministers; Serbia's Economic Cooperation; Territorial Integrity and Sovereignty

The 59th Meeting of Foreign Ministers of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations is being held in the Philippines. In addition to meetings of the organization's foreign ministers, meetings with external partners are also taking place. Serbia is represented by Foreign Minister Marko Đurić. Before participating in the gathering in Manila, Đurić said that it is in Serbia's state and national interest to make an additional effort to connect with ASEAN countries.

RTS1

Serbia on the Path to the EU; Vučić on European Integration; Foreign Direct Investment in Serbia

Serbia is on the European path, and the European Union is where I want to see the country, President Aleksandar Vučić said in an interview with the Austrian newspaper Die Presse. Serbia accounts for 57.1% of the Western Balkans' total exports to the European Union and attracts more than 60% of foreign direct investment. Serbia's gross domestic product accounts for more than half of the GDP of the entire Western Balkans.

Politika

Friendship and History Connect Us with the Czech Republic

Serbian President Aleksandar Vučić highlighted the strong friendship and historical ties between Serbia and the Czech Republic, emphasizing significant progress in bilateral political and economic relations. Trade between the two countries increased from EUR 430 million to EUR 2.4 billion, while Serbia's exports to the Czech Republic rose from EUR 130 million to EUR 1.3 billion. Vučić expressed gratitude to the Czech Republic for supporting Serbia's European path and announced further cooperation, including investments by Czech companies and the exchange of healthcare expertise.

Politika

Minister Krkobabić Visits Villages in Batočina

Minister of Rural Welfare Milan Krkobabić visited villages in the municipality of Batočina in the Šumadija District, where he spoke with residents about challenges, results achieved so far, and priorities for rural development. The minister emphasized the need for time, money, good people, and a willingness to work in order to improve life in villages. With support from the Ministry, the Municipality of Batočina implemented programs including the settlement of abandoned houses, renovation of the Cultural Center in Dobrovodica, procurement of a minibus for residents' transport, and support for the operation of a cooperative.

DAILY REPORT POLITICAL REVIEW

Večernje Novosti

Parliamentary Election in October or November

Serbian President Aleksandar Vučić announced that parliamentary elections will be held in October or November, while the presidential election will take place somewhat later, noting that the Government must inform the National Assembly before the elections are called.

Blic

ANKE HOLSTEIN IS THE NEW GERMAN AMBASSADOR TO SERBIA

Anke Holstein will be the new German ambassador to Serbia, taking up the post after serving as minister-counsellor at the German Embassy in Moscow. From 2020 to 2022, she was ambassador to North Macedonia, where she actively promoted European integration despite the Bulgarian blockade. She also served as ambassador to Djibouti and held other diplomatic positions in the Western Balkans and European institutions. Holstein speaks six languages, including Serbian, Albanian, and Slovenian.