

DATUM

October 5, 2026

NINAMEDIA CLIPPING

DAILY REPORT

POLITICAL REVIEW

ninamedia

DAILY REPORT POLITICAL REVIEW

Politika

It Is Our Duty to Remember and Preserve the Memory of the Victims

Caretaker Prime Minister Đuro Macut led the state ceremony at the Jajinci Memorial Park commemorating Serbs, Roma and Jews killed during the Second World War. Macut said that Serbia has a lasting obligation to preserve the memory of the victims and to advocate peace, stability and dialogue.

Danas

Decision Amending the University of Belgrade Statute Annulled

The University of Belgrade Council annulled the decisions from its July session following an order from the education inspectorate and adopted rules on holding electronic sessions. The dispute concerns the procedure for amending the Statute and the rules for selecting candidates for rector, while the Ministry of Education had previously conducted an extraordinary inspection.

Blic

17 DAYS OF RAMPAGING IN CENTRAL PRISTINA

Blic reports on several days of protests in Pristina following first-instance verdicts against former KLA leaders before the Kosovo Specialist Chambers in The Hague. The protests included attacks on institutional buildings, while the political debate raised questions about attitudes toward the verdicts and compensation for victims.

Politika

Đurić: Claim That the Foreign Ministry Is Obstructing Diaspora Voting Is False

Caretaker Foreign Minister Marko Đurić rejected claims that the Ministry of Foreign Affairs is obstructing voting by Serbian citizens abroad. He said diplomatic and consular missions processed almost three times as many applications as in the previous elections and that the ministry proposed opening 90 polling stations, while the Republic Electoral Commission makes the final decision.

Danas

Veselin Milić Returns to Work

Caretaker Interior Minister Ivica Dačić confirmed that former Belgrade police chief Veselin Milić had returned to his position as assistant director of police. Dačić explained that the legal grounds for his suspension ceased after his detention was lifted, while Milić's trial is scheduled to begin in November.

Blic

STATE REFORM IN 5 POINTS

At a campaign rally of the United Serbia list, proposals for public administration reforms in the event of an election victory were presented, including reducing the number of ministries and changes in healthcare, education and local government. These are campaign proposals, not measures adopted by state institutions.