

NINAMEDIA CLIPPING

DAILY REPORT ECONOMIC REVIEW

ninamedia

DAILY REPORT ECONOMY REVIEW

Danas

August Deficit of 600 Million Dinars

The national budget recorded a deficit of 600 million dinars in August, while the state deficit in the first eight months amounted to 109.3 billion dinars, twice as much as in the same period last year. Public debt reached EUR 41.93 billion at the end of August, or 43.3% of GDP, alongside a decline in excise-tax revenue from petroleum products.

Euronews

GITEX AI Belgrade Invites Regional Startups

GITEX AI Belgrade has opened applications for startups from Serbia and ten other countries in the region for the event to be held from May 25 to 27, 2027. The Serbian Chamber of Commerce will cover 95% of participation costs for selected companies, while more than 800 exhibitors and at least 600 B2B meetings with investors and industry buyers are expected.

Večernje Novosti

Insurance Helps Identify Risk Too

At the 'Key Trends 2026' conference, representatives of business, banks, insurance companies, regulators and technology companies discussed digitalization, cybersecurity and risk management. Branislav Trifunović of Dunav osiguranje stressed that insurance should also play a role in the early identification of emerging risks, while participants also pointed to the growing share of insurance premiums in GDP.

Danas

Directorate Violates Agreement

The European Commission assessed that new rules introduced by the Civil Aviation Directorate of Serbia for foreign air carriers are incompatible with the European Common Aviation Area Agreement. Implementation has been postponed until March 2027, and according to the article, the original rules could jeopardize Wizz Air's base in Belgrade.

Večernje Novosti

Beverages from 30 Countries

The international wine, food and rakija fair 'Wine Vision by Open Balkan' will bring together 550 exhibitors from more than 30 countries from October 10 to 12. Buyers and sellers from 45 countries are expected to attend, with more than 2,000 business meetings and the judging of more than 800 wines announced.

Danas

The Bill Comes Due for 'Buying Favor'

The article examines the possible inflationary consequences of nearly EUR 1 billion in government payments disbursed in September. Economists warn that higher consumption could prolong inflation and keep interest rates elevated, while weakening investment; at the same time, the selling exchange rate of the euro at exchange offices increased after the start of the 6,000-dinar payments to citizens.