

DATUM

October 14, 2026

NINAMEDIA CLIPPING

DAILY REPORT

POLITICAL REVIEW

ninamedia

DAILY REPORT POLITICAL REVIEW

Who Are the Candidates and Where to Vote

Ahead of the October 25 elections, the article provides an overview of the candidates and voting procedures, with an emphasis on the organization of the electoral process. Citizens are given information about electoral lists and polling stations that is important for exercising their right to vote. Election administrators and political actors are entering the final stage of preparations for voting.

Brnabić Meets with PACE Election Observation Mission

National Assembly President Ana Brnabić met with representatives of the Election Observation Mission of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe. The meeting was held in the context of monitoring Serbia's electoral process and discussions with domestic institutions. The presence of international observers is one of the elements of oversight of the conduct of the elections.

Serbia and Switzerland Are Closer Than We Think

Swiss MP Kristijan Imark said that Serbia and Switzerland have strong political, economic and social ties following his visit to Belgrade. During meetings with Ana Brnabić, Marko Đurić and other officials, they discussed European integration, energy, security, innovation and regional stability. Imark noted that more than 600 Swiss companies operate in Serbia and that Switzerland plans to participate in Expo 2027.

"Serb List" Briefs U.S. Senators on the Difficult Position of Serbs in Kosovo and Metohija

Representatives of the Serb List spoke with U.S. senators about the position of the Serbian population in Kosovo and Metohija. According to the report, they highlighted the problems and challenges Serbs face in everyday life. The meeting was presented as an opportunity to directly inform representatives of the U.S. Congress about these issues.

Podgorica Provisionally Closes Three EU Negotiating Chapters

Montenegro provisionally closed three negotiating chapters in the process of accession to the European Union. This step represents progress in the negotiations, but it does not mean that the overall accession process has been completed. Further progress depends on fulfilling the remaining obligations and on assessments by EU institutions.

WHO DID VUČIĆ PARDON AND FOR WHICH CRIMINAL OFFENSES

Danas analyzes cases of presidential pardons and asks for which criminal offenses certain individuals were pardoned. The topic opens a discussion about the criteria for exercising the constitutional authority of the President of the Republic. The focus is on the transparency of the decisions and their significance in the current political context.