

DATUM

October 20, 2026

NINAMEDIA CLIPPING

DAILY REPORT

POLITICAL REVIEW

ninamedia

DAILY REPORT POLITICAL REVIEW

Danas

SELAKOVIĆ SUSPECTED OF ORGANIZED CRIME

Seven professional associations representing Serbia's film industry have announced plans to file a criminal complaint against Minister of Culture Nikola Selaković and other individuals over suspected irregularities which, they claim, have jeopardized film production. Representatives of the associations estimate the initial damage at two billion dinars. They say funding delays have put the production of dozens of domestic films at risk.

Danas

Goran Vesić and Anita Dimoski Remain at Liberty

The Higher Court in Novi Sad has extended by three months the restriction on leaving home for four defendants in the proceedings concerning the collapse of the railway station canopy. The measure applies to Jelena Tanasković, Milan Spremić, Marina Gavrilović and Dejan Todorović. The restriction was not extended for former minister Goran Vesić or his former associate Anita Dimoski, and both remain at liberty.

Danas

PEGASUS ON VLADAN ĐOKIĆ'S PHONE

Vladan Đokić, rector of the University of Belgrade, said the discovery of Pegasus spyware on his phone was an attempt to intimidate him. The SHARE Foundation stated that prosecutorial associate Rade Bajić had also been targeted, in addition to Đokić. Đokić called on the competent authorities to conduct an independent investigation without delay.

Danas

BERLIN PROCESS SUMMIT IN MILOČER

The Berlin Process Summit will be held on October 22 in Miločer, with the participation of leaders of the six Western Balkan economies and European partners. The gathering is the final event of Montenegro's presidency and will be hosted by Prime Minister Milojko Spajić, alongside German Chancellor Friedrich Merz. Serbia will be represented by Prime Minister Đuro Macut, while the main topics will be regional economic integration, security and European integration.

Danas

UN TO DISCUSS KOSOVO TODAY

The United Nations Security Council is reviewing the Secretary-General's six-month report on UNMIK's work in Kosovo. The report describes the security situation as stable but points to a prolonged institutional deadlock. It also highlights limited progress in implementing the Brussels Agreement and tensions between the Pristina authorities and local governments in the north.

Danas

HIGHER PUBLIC PROSECUTOR'S OFFICE TO ORGANIZE SPECIAL ELECTION-DAY SHIFTS

The Higher Public Prosecutor's Office in Belgrade announced increased on-call duty from October 25 to November 5 in connection with the elections. Two to three prosecutors will be on duty around the clock at the Higher Public Prosecutor's Office and at each of the six basic public prosecutor's offices under its jurisdiction. The aim is to respond quickly to reports of criminal offenses related to electoral rights, public order and violence.