

DATUM

September 23, 2026

NINAMEDIA CLIPPING

DAILY REPORT

POLITICAL REVIEW

ninamedia

DAILY REPORT POLITICAL REVIEW

Blic

VUČIĆ: I BELIEVE WE WILL ACCELERATE OUR PATH TOWARD EUROPEAN UNION MEMBERSHIP

Serbian President Aleksandar Vučić took part in a summit in New York dedicated to multilateralism, international law, peace and prosperity, held during the session of the UN General Assembly. He said that Serbia remains committed to international law and the UN Charter, while talks with European and American officials on Serbia's European path and other political and economic issues were also announced during his stay in New York.

Politika

Serbs on Both Sides of the Drina Are Bound by Identity

Serbian Minister of Culture Nikola Selaković met in Banja Luka with Nenad Stevandić, President of the National Assembly of Republika Srpska, with talks focused on cultural cooperation and the preservation of shared heritage. Selaković emphasized that Serbia respects the territorial integrity of Bosnia and Herzegovina, while stating that it will continue to support the preservation of the cultural and national identity of Serbs west of the Drina.

Politika

Macura Presented Our Country's Experience in Implementing Resolution 1325

Acting Minister Tatjana Macura participated in the program of the 81st session of the UN General Assembly, focusing on the "Women, Peace and Security" agenda. At an event organized by the Government of Liberia, she presented Serbia's experience in implementing UN Security Council Resolution 1325 and Serbia's third National Action Plan for the 2025–2027 period.

Politika

Stevica Smederevac Elected President of the REM Council

Stevica Smederevac was unanimously elected President of the Council of the Regulatory Authority for Electronic Media, while Ira Prodanov Krajišnik was elected his deputy. All eight Council members voted in favor, and Smederevac announced that the body would work in accordance with the law and address issues that remained unresolved during the period in which the Council was not functioning.

Politika

Six Serbian Ambassadors Recalled

Serbian President Aleksandar Vučić issued decrees recalling six ambassadors, according to the Official Gazette. Serbia's ambassadors to Russia, Azerbaijan, Morocco, Belgium and Portugal were recalled, as was the ambassador to the Holy See in the Vatican.

Politika

Alternative to the Government Is Not Articulated Clearly Enough

Politika reports on an analysis by the Ljubljana-based IFIMES institute concerning Serbia's snap parliamentary elections, examining political polarization, the campaign of the ruling bloc and the profile of the Student List. Assessments of advantages, weaknesses and possible post-election scenarios represent the views of IFIMES, while the elections are described as an important test of the country's political direction.