

DATUM

September 28, 2026

NINAMEDIA CLIPPING

DAILY REPORT

POLITICAL REVIEW

ninamedia

DAILY REPORT POLITICAL REVIEW

Večernje Novosti

PROUD OF THE RESULTS AND HONORABLE WORK FOR SERBIA

Before submitting his resignation as President of Serbia, Aleksandar Vučić summed up his ten-year term and spoke about the upcoming parliamentary elections, economic results and foreign policy. He announced that he would enter the campaign as a citizen and presented his views on the future organization of the Government and relations with Russia, Ukraine, the United States and China.

Blic

WITH PUTIN: AGREEMENT ON GAS, DISCUSSION OF ALL KEY ISSUES

Aleksandar Vučić and Vladimir Putin spoke by telephone for about an hour about energy cooperation, NIS, bilateral relations, the situation in the region and the war in Ukraine. Vučić expressed his expectation that the gas arrangement expiring on September 30 would be extended and that stable supplies to Serbia would be secured.

Večernje Novosti

Special Assistance Package for Preševo

Milica Đurđević Stamenkovski, Minister of Labour, Employment, Veteran and Social Affairs in the caretaker government, visited Serbian families in the municipality of Preševo. She announced a special package of support measures, prepared with the Eparchy of Vranje, focusing on large and socially vulnerable families, elderly households, persons with disabilities and young people.

Danas

The Goal Is to Intimidate and Drive Out Serbs

Nine people were arrested in northern Kosovo on suspicion of war crimes. The Serbian Government Office for Kosovo and Metohija said the arrests represented pressure on the Serbian population and stated that its representatives were in contact with the families of those detained in order to provide legal assistance.

Danas

A Move with Clear Political Significance

The article analyzes the decision of the Serbian delegation, led by Aleksandar Vučić, to remain in the UN General Assembly hall during the speech by Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu.