

DATUM

September 30, 2026

NINAMEDIA CLIPPING

DAILY REPORT

POLITICAL REVIEW

ninamedia

DAILY REPORT POLITICAL REVIEW

Politika

First Rafale in our country in January 2028

Siniša Mali said that the first of 12 new French Rafale aircraft should arrive in Serbia in January 2028, followed by one each month. Bratislav Gašić said that the Serbian Armed Forces would be ready to receive the aircraft in accordance with the contract.

Euronews

EU plans for enlargement and candidate countries

According to Politico reports cited by Euronews, the EU is preparing separate roadmaps for Montenegro, Ukraine, Moldova, and Albania, with clearer deadlines and conditions for progress. The program analyzed what such a model could mean for Serbia and how changes to the EU's decision-making process could affect enlargement.

Blic

"Serbs are being arrested on ethnic grounds"

Igor Simić said that he and several other representatives of the Serbian List had received summonses from the Special Prosecutor's Office in Pristina over events in Zvečan in 2023. In a conversation with UNMIK head Peter Due, Petar Petković alleged that arrests were politically motivated and called for stronger international engagement in protecting the rights of Serbs.

Politika

EUR 66.3 million to be invested in renovating and building primary schools

Education Minister Dejan Vuk Stanković announced a new round of investment in primary schools with World Bank support. More than EUR 66.3 million is planned for the construction, reconstruction, expansion, and equipping of 126 schools across Serbia.

Euronews

Pristina elects a president amid political disputes; Nine Serbs from Zubin Potok remanded in custody

There is still no agreement in Pristina on a presidential candidate as the deadline approaches, while disputes among Albanian parties over the Specialist Chambers in The Hague continue.

Politika

Tribute to Police Lieutenant Colonel Veljko Radenović

Interior Minister Ivica Dačić laid a wreath at the memorial to Police Lieutenant Colonel Veljko Radenović in Kruševac. The ceremony was attended by family members, veterans, senior Interior Ministry officials, and local government representatives.