President of Serbia Aleksandar Vucic met today in Belgrade with a delegation of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD), led by Managing.

President of Serbia Aleksandar Vucic met today in Belgrade with a delegation of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD), led by Managing Director for South-Eastern Europe Grzegorz Zielinski. The meeting was held in the building of the General Secretariat of the President of the Republic in Belgrade, attended by Ministers of Construction, Transport and Infrastructure Aleksandra Sofronijevic, and Minister of Environmental Protection Sara Pavkov. The European Bank for Reconstruction and Development announced at the end of last year that it has invested 10 billion euros in Serbia since 2001, and that it wants to further strengthen its partnership with our country.
